37,170 Farm Bureau Members in State

The Jefferson County Farm Bureau went over the top on her quota for 1946. The quota was set at 375, whereas the roster shows over 600.

With its largest membership in history, 37,170, the Kentucky Farm Bureau stands in fourth place among the 44 state farm bureaus in the nation, says an announcement released today by J. R. Stanford, Louisville, executive secretary.

This is an increase of 7,807 over the preceding year. The total membership is scattered through 102 counties of the state, with only counties in the eastern mountain section being unorganized. However, a number of these are now making an effort to organize.

At the annual meeting of the American Farm Bureau Federation which opened in San Francisco, December 8, Kentucky accepted a membership quota of 40,000 for 1947. This is for the national fiscal year, which ends November 30.

At the annual meeting of the Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation which opened in Louisville, December 14, the various county organizations will meet to set quotas for 1947. The total of these may exceed the total national quota. Although the fiscal year of the state organization does not end until December 31, it is expected that the difference in totals between the two periods will be negligible.

Some major changes have been made in the procedure of the state annual convention. Among them is starting the general session at 8:30 a.m. the first morning, which will be Wednesday, January 8, instead of at 1:00 p.m. in the afternoon.

Mr. Stanford says he expects the largest crowd in the history of the organization to attend the January meeting. He warned that reservations for those expecting to attend should be made early.

Mrs. Caldwell May Remain On School Board

Election to the Jefferson County school board of Dr. C. B. Shadette was voided Wednesday by a decision given in Circuit Court by Judge George S. Caldwell. Shadette had failed to file pre-election expense accounts required by law. Mrs. E. Caldwell, a defeated candidate in the election will serve until January 6, 1947, when her term ends.

Mrs. Caldwell may succeed herself by appointment of the board, since the law provides that the remaining members of the body can make such appointment. Mrs. Caldwell brought the suit against Dr. Shadette to retain her seat on the board. Unless she resigns, however, there will be no vacancy except as may be declared by court.

Seal Sale Just Past Midway Mark

At the midway mark, the Christmas Seal drive had nearly 50% of its $55,000 goal, reports from headquarters indicate. 37 clubs and parent-teacher organizations have contributed $32,000 through the bond sale and 9 schools had been heard from on the bangle pin sale, turning in $149.80.

It is a little early for school reports, however, and later there will be a fuller report on the school sale of pins.

Christmas Seal money is the only support of the Louisville Tuberculosis Association which offers free chest x-rays, health education and rehabilitation to the citizens of Jefferson County. During the remainder of the Seal Drive, the Association's seal machine is operating at 507 S. 3rd Street in Louisville for the convenience of anyone who would like a quick, free x-ray of the lungs.

County Corn Derby Gets Big Pay-Off

By S. W. Anderson, County Agricultural Agent

This Corn Derby Contest is conducted to determine the highest possible acre yield of corn that can be produced economically in the county. In 1944 there were 22,892 acres of corn grown and harvested for grain, a total of 619,520 bushels were harvested from this acreage. Thus the average acre yield for the county was approximately 36 bushels.

Making use of the adapted hybrid varieties and improved practices in fertilization and planting corn only on land well suited for the production of row crops, the average yield can be increased to at least 40 bushels per acre, thus making it possible to produce the 800,000 bushels commonly grown in the county on 14,000 acres of ground.

This practice would release one-third of the land commonly planted in corn or some 6,000 acres to be seeded down to permanent pasture and hay crops. This will in turn conserve soil fertility and reduce the operating costs on the farm while maintaining or increasing the income of the farm.

Twenty farmers competing in the contest this year produced an average yield of 100 bushels or more per acre on at least 5 acres of land.

The results are as follows: Allen Baugh, near Kosmosdale, 100.7 bu. per acre. J. W. Netherton, Jr., near Worthington, 107.0 bushels per acre. S. R. Ewing, near Freya Hill, 107.9 bu. per acre. George Graft, near Jeffersontown, 108.6 bu. per acre. Henry Kalme, near Kosmosdale, 112.0 bu. per acre. H. L. Graft, near Jeffersontown, 113.9 bu. per acre. Carl Winkler, near Middletown, 117.4 bu. per acre. Donnie Stout, near Fern Creek, 120.6 bu. per acre. George Miller, near Jeffersontown, 121.4 bu. per acre. George Eady, near Jeffersontown, 121.5 bu. per acre. J. H. Eady, near Harrods Creek, 125.9 bu. per acre. John E. Kalme, near Kosmosdale, 127.6 bu. per acre. Earl Rhee Jean, near Eastonville, 128.3 bu. per acre. William Graft, near Middletown, 132.1 bu. per acre. Willis Stout, near Fern Creek, 134.0 bu. per acre. Karl Miller, near Middletown, 134.0 bu. per acre. The yields are calculated and expressed as per acre having 15.5% moisture. These results are remarkable, but easily attained and can be repeated economically each year. Certainly it is to the interest of each farmer to increase the aver-

Chief Thompson Warns Against Yule Hazards

"This Christmas, give the best present of all—your presence," thus the National Safety Council reminds all Americans that, "the one thing your family wants most around the Christmas tree is your presence, not your presents and other forms of accident is timely now that people may use extra care for the extra holiday hazards. Chief Claud Thompson, of the Jefferson County Fire Department, says today that throughout the holiday season Jefferson County should have a "prevention on your mind, so that you won't have it on your conscience."

Continuing his statement of holiday warning, Col. Thompson went on to say:

"Your Christmas tree and other decorations are five hazards which you want to watch most carefully this Christmas. Cut off the base of the tree at an angle at least one inch above the original cut and keep the tree standing in water during the entire period it is in the house. Always place the water level above the cut. This method reduces the flammability of the tree by preventing chemicals when used with fresh trees."

The candle for Christmas is still taking its yearly toll of lives and property. A short circuit in the wiring is sufficient to start the tree or any other combustible material burning. Sets bearing the label of "Department's Laboratory" are safe to use.

"Elaborate decorations are an important factor to most holiday parties, but while the decorations have occurred when small fires flashed across rooms filled with combustible hangings. Flame-proofed materials can be purchased at many stores. INSIST ON FIRE-RESISTANT DECORATIONS."

"Clubs, stores, schools, churches, and other public places need to be especially vigilant to start the Christmas holidays. Most places will be decorated and most of them will be decorated in a large part of the time. Flammable decorations should not be allowed in any public building. Waste materials should be removed at once. No smoking should be allowed in buildings. Kerosene stoves must be kept unobstructed and all exits should be clearly marked at all times. All fire equipment should be ready for operation. Even buckets filled with water, widely distributed, may mean the difference between life and death or the difference between a trivial fire and a major one."

Colonel Thompson concluded with, "HAVE A MERRY CHRISTMAS, NOT A SORRY ONE!"

BACKS CONFIDENCE WITH $100,000

To dispel for all time the untrue and malicious rumors that have been circulated about the permanence of Satisfin ink used in the safe deposits vaults of the Mercantile National Bank in the Reynolds Pen Company, in Miami today backed his confidences in his product with $100,000.

The occasion for this was the writing of a check for $100,000 in the safe deposits vaults of the Mercantile National Bank in the presence of Mayor Herbert A. Frank, Maurice Liberman, president of the Mercantile National Bank, and Ruth Byrd, sun and queen of Miami Beach.

Reynolds stated that he would pay $100,000 to any designated charity if, at the end of one year, the check for $100,000 was not clearly legible.

Liberman stated that at no time has his bank refused to permit the use of Reynolds Satisfin ink on any of the bank records or other permanently retained material.

RIGHT OF ALL PEOPLE TO KNOW

John G. Winant, former Governor of New Hampshire and wartime Ambassador to London in declaring that it is possible to restore old philosophies, said recently that, "The truth will prevail" and "The truth will make us free."

It isn't very encouraging to know that in the heart of the nation, where family weekly and daily newspapers are relied upon for dependable information, there was a decrease in the number of weekly papers in the war years and, during that same time, there was less than a normal increase in dailies.

Publishers of Survey Graphic have expressed regrets over the decrease of the weeklies in recent years, particularly because local newspapers undoubtedly represent and state the attitude of more shades of opinion than any other publication.

Those who have taken the trouble to make an intelligent analysis have proven that the home town editor and publisher stands at the top as champion of democracy, in the entire field of journalism.

Survey Graphic, referred to above, in which Mr. Winant had an article in the current number, tells us that "the main idea is that all barriers to the free flow of information must be abolished in our country and abroad to help assure peace."

A newspaper correspondent, who has devoted a lifetime writing for the local dailies and weekly newspapers of the country, recently testified to the fact that those papers, "almost in their entirety," have never pulled down their flags, or deserted the American form of government popularly called Democracy.

WILL BRING YOU BABSON'S REPORTS

American business has no more inspiring personality than Roger W. Babson, internationally known business commentator and investor adviser. An outstanding feature of his philosophy has been his lifelong insistence on the importance of religion in business.

Mr. Babson, whose Business and Financial Outlook for 1947 will be printed in the issue of The Jeffersonian of December 27, was born in 1875. Reared in an old-fashioned atmosphere of hard work and hustle on a farm in Gloucester, he went to Massachusetts Institute of Technology. On graduating in 1898, he turned instinctively to financial and business activities.

His exertions, however, undermined his health; he contracted tuberculosis and was sent West "as good as dead." It was while he was convalescing from this dread malady that he worked out some of the possibilities and problems of business statistics.

That was more than forty years ago. Today his weekly statistical and financial reports are read by a large staff of workers.

Mr. Babson founded Babson Institute for Men; and in co-operation with Mrs. Babson, developed Webster College for Women—both nationally known educational institutions. Here young men and women may concentrate more on the fundamentals and less on the frills of business.

Mr. Babson's forecast for the new year of 1947 will be printed in The Jeffersonian because of the reputation he has established for accuracy in analyzing the economic trends of the times. We appreciate the recognition, on the part of the notable statistician, of the hand of the Almighty working, inevitably, in the affairs of men, and the fact that the laws of God must be respected, sooner or later, by all those who occupy positions of responsibility for leadership in the world, since the forces of nature are under the control of none other than the Creator, whose name of justice never wavers.

To millions of newspaper readers, Mr. Babson is best known by his familiar weekly stories on business, appearing in papers in every state of the nation. He has the gift of bringing statistics to life and of instilling a broader vision in business men.

THE VOICE OF THE VET

By William S. Kennedy

The Legion quintet broke the veto made a victorious splash in defeating the Holy Trinity five in a preliminary game Tuesday night at Jeffersontown Gym.

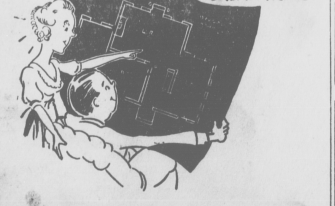

Joe Reid, Jr., took top scoring honors for the Legion team, with a well-placed 14 points, totaling 38 for 7 towns to Holy Trinity's 21. No primary or contingent beneficiary in the absence of Coach Roy D. Cobb, Jr., Floor aptly filled his shoes in these instances the policy position to steer the Legion to victory number one.

World War II veterans, folders of National Service Life Insurance, are urged to declare their principal and contingent beneficiaries if this has not been done. Many veterans have lost their insurance on a wartime status, not taking advantage of the many changes inaugurated by the Insurance Act of 1946.

Insurance offices at the Columbus (O.) Branch Office for Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, call attention to those policies in which no primary or contingent beneficiary has been named, dictating Cobb, Jr., Floor aptly filled his shoes in these instances the policy position to steer the Legion to victory number one.

will be paid to the estate of the insured where death occurs after August 1, 1946. When this happens, the designated dependents are exposed to the risk of unnecessary expense and delay.

As part of an estate, insurance loses its identity as such and is subject to all the laws governing estates, including inheritance tax, administrative costs, and any claims against the estate insured.

When a contingent or secondary beneficiary is not designated, any unpaid benefits will be paid to the insured's estate after the death of the first beneficiary. This might necessitate requiring the insured's estates many years after his death.

In lieu of notifying a beneficiary by last will and testament duly provided, however, it was emphasized, a beneficiary cannot be changed by will.

Although the insured may change beneficiaries at any time and as many times as he wishes, without consent of the beneficiary, to be effective the notice must be made in writing and signed by the insured and forwarded to Veterans' Administration by the insured or his agent.

Veterans who wish to obtain detailed information regarding this important feature of their N.S.I. policy, should contact the nearest V.A. representative.

$100 a week for everybody

HEROLD FOR PRESIDENT!

I would like to see every man, woman and child in the United States guaranteed $100 a week for life.

This is a fine, noble, generous, humane impulse.

It makes me a great man to have such an impulse—a great humanitarian—a great friend of the common man.

And the funny thing is, I could run for President on this platform and get millions of votes.

It would cost only 728 billion dollars a year to carry out my plan, but few could afford to stop to wonder where the 728 billion were coming from.

You can get a lot of followers in America if you'll just promise to give enough away. Few people will bother to ask "How?"

HOME MAKERS
WORTHINGTON
The Worthington Homemakers' Club met with Mrs. Frank Branciforte at the home of Mrs. Simcoe Lane, Tuesday, December 10. Meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Carl Alliger. Mrs. William Klein read the devotion which was on Christ's birth. Eighteen members were present.

The major project was "Foods," and Mrs. Roscoe Jaegers gave an interesting lesson on vitamins, milk, cereals, fruits and vegetables explaining the necessary foods needed to keep the body healthy.

Lunch was served by the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. Newton Simcoe, and the decorations were carried out in Christmas trees, candles and ribbons.

Mrs. Brandon gave the recreation, reading about Christmas customs in other countries and singing Christmas carols. She and Mrs. Simcoe displayed coat suits which they had made themselves.

Mrs. Jaegers and Mrs. Ellrod were appointed as delegates to attend the Farm and Home Convention in Lexington, January 28 to 31, 1947.

Next meeting will be on Tuesday, January 14, at the home of Mrs. Fred Nagel on Chamberlain Lane. Mrs. Annie Hahn, publicity chairman.

GIVING AND RECEIVING
THE commonly accepted belief is that we have to get before we can give. Christ Jesus taught quite the opposite of this. He said, "Give, and it shall be given unto you; and shall be shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again." Gratitude and love are the basis of these words as they are in Jesus' time.

Some may ask, "How can we give anything when we haven't enough ourselves?" Was Jesus rich as the world measures wealth? Here are his words (Luke 12:3): "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head. Yet no one was able to give more to mankind than he gave."

The Bible affords us undoubted evidence that Jesus was rich in his understanding of God's goodness and power and availability. He gave unparagoned of that understanding to feed and heal the multitudes and to raise the dead. What did he receive in return? He gave dominion over the claims of hate, lack, limitation, and the ills and disorders of material things. He gave peace, love and compassion so great that even on the cross he could ask God to forgive those who were crucifying him. He gave the ability to demonstrate the perfection, harmony, and immortality of man's true being.

Do we desire to give? Then let us first make sure that we desire to be rich in order to get to that God's wise and perfect giving. And let us remember that it is not what is given or the amount that is given that is of primary importance. Jesus said, "It is clear when he called attention to the poor widow casting her two mites into the treasury. The rich were making much larger contributions, but Jesus said (Luke 21:3): "Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all."

"When confusion and distraction seem to be in evidence, we can contribute patience and forbearance. For harshness and ill temper we can offer kindness and forgiveness. When ugliness and disorder seem apparent, we can give praise to God for the spiritual beauty and harmony which are ever present for man to express and enjoy. When the claims of disease and discord show for recognition, we can give our attention to the spiritual facts of being—the ever-present and eternal life of God, all-embracing life. Health is gradually awakening to see that real wealth is not indicated by the size of one's bank balance or holdings of other material assets, but by one's understanding of man's heritage as a child of God. Thus he is richest and best fitted to give generously whose consciousness is filled with God-given thoughts and ideas. "The rich in spirit help the poor in one grand brotherhood, all having the same Principle, or Father," writes Mary Baker Eddy in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" (p. 518): "and blessed is that man who to his brother's need and supply it, seeking his own in another's good." —The Christian Science Monitor.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON
By HAROLD L. LINDQUIST, D. D.
Of the Board of Christian Education, United Methodist Church, Louisville, Ky.
Reprinted by Western Newspaper Union.
Lesson for December 22
Lesson, subjects and Scripture texts are revised and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

A MESSAGE OF LOVE (CHRISTMAS LESSON)
LESSON TEXT—John 3:16. Ephesians 3:14-21.
MEMORY SELECTION—Thanks be to God who is the Father of the mercies of all Christians 3:15.
When Jesus was born in Bethlehem there were only a few men and women of faith who could see in the Babe of the manger the glory and the power of Christ. It was a dark and unbelieving age into which he was born—and who will say that it is different in the day in which we celebrate Christmas, 1946.

Indifferent, ignorant and stolid people are glad to try to capitalize on the spirit of Christmas, but they still despise and turn away from the Son of God, Jesus the Saviour.

It behooves us, therefore, to present once more the message of the Saviour who came as Christians, that all men may hear of him.

Our lesson speaks of God's great gift of love and tells us that because he did give his Son for us, we are to give our hearts to him.

God loved—so God gave. Love prompts the heart to give. "We may not love him," it is true, but one cannot love without giving. God's love is not limited by time or space. It provided a way of redemption for man and in due season the Saviour came, to live, to die, to die for all mankind.

It was no chance event, no accident, that it was the Son of God speaking in his "unpardonable gift" (1 Cor. 9:15) of his only begotten Son.

That leads us to our second Scripture and our second point. We who receive gifts try to express our appreciation in a polite and proper way.

II. Our "Thank You" to God (Eph. 3:14-21).

Paul's prayer for the Ephesian church and for us who are in the "family" of Christ is how we may give our lives as Christians express our gratitude to God.

The church of Christ, made up of those who are taught in him, should show its relationship to God, and its appreciation of his grace by its life.

1. Strength (v. 16). It does not honor God nor is he properly represented in the world by those who are spiritually weak and ineffective. It is the privilege of the believer to be "strengthened with might" (v. 16) and this takes place as the Holy Spirit has liberty "with power" (v. 16) to "strengthen with might" as Weymouth translates it. No part of man's inner being is then left weak or without the light and grace of the Holy Spirit.

2. Love (v. 17). This is the strong foundation of all spiritual development and usefulness. Right is put down deep (as we change the figure of speech) to hold the life steady, and to provide the nourishment for spiritual living.

This is the love which Christ makes his home in the heart. Think of the privilege of making such a guest seat at home in our hearts! Let us be grateful, and let us recognize him and honor his presence.

Knowledge (v. 18). The believer has to know not only the knowable, but also that which passes knowledge, namely, the love of Christ.

We shall grow in grace as we grow in the knowledge of the love of Christ (II Cor. 13:14). We with all of God's people—what a great and beautiful company—are to comprehend, to really grasp, the length and breadth and height and depth of his love.

We see in the psalmist, "Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain to it" (Ps. 139:6). But "Thou remember that it is as Christ dwells 'in our hearts by faith' (v. 17) that we are able to comprehend such truth.

Most Christians live on a very low plane, going along with a limited and unsatisfactory Christian experience when all this is available to them by faith.

4. Faith (v. 20). Here we see why it is possible to do the impossible, to know that which passes knowledge, to see the unseen. It is by faith in him who "is able to do infinitely beyond all our highest thoughts and thoughts" (Eph. 3:20) that we attain unto this blessed place of blessing.

So this is the "Thank you" that God wants this Christmas. He wants the unbeliever to turn to him in faith, and the believer to really be what he ought to be and can be in Christ. Then a man's whole life will say, "Thank you, Lord, for saving my soul!"

For the festive successive year the writer of these notes expresses to his readers everywhere his good wish for a most blessed Christmas, both in heart and home. May the Lord give us all special grace this year to thank him for his great Christmas gift by a life wholly dedicated to him.

Newburg News

By Mrs. J. H. Shively

Our services at Newburg on Sunday morning were very shipshape, especially so Sunday, when Bro. Harold Vaughn gave Christmas message, subject, "What Does Christmas Mean To You?" Miss Lila Vaughn, who is home from Auburn, officiated at the organ and sang one of her sweet solos, "When I Met Jesus." Bro. Vaughn's mother was also present and prayed a wonderful and helpful prayer. We are so fortunate to have this spiritual family worship with us when they can, and always so willing to help.

A joyful day was spent in the Stivers home Sunday when a number of church people were invited there to dine. Such a delicious dinner prepared by Mrs. Stivers and Mrs. Standiford. Mrs. Frederick assisted in serving.

After dinner Bro. Vaughn and Mrs. Stivers entertained us with music. Bro. Vaughn on the piano and Mrs. Stivers on the Barzoka. Soon Mr. and Mrs. Standiford left to practice for a Christmas pageant at Cedar Creek and some left for Newburg to rehearse a simple Manger Scene, directed by Mrs. Vaughn. The day was far too short for Newburg to rehearse a simple Manger Scene, directed by Mrs. Vaughn. The day was far too short for Newburg to rehearse a simple Manger Scene, directed by Mrs. Vaughn.

The Christmas Party for the Sunday School will be given Monday night, December 23, at the church basement. Santa will be present to deliver the gifts from the tree after which games will be played and refreshments served.

Mrs. C. R. Hart spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Thompson and is now with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Standiford until the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Jones from Los Angeles Tuesday.

Mrs. J. E. Standiford was a guest of Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Shively last Wednesday and did we enjoy her! She always brings sunshine and cheer when she comes and her visits are too short and seldom.

The recent child supper given by the school was quite a success. The eats were good; not as much help as needed, but the president, Mrs. Hart, was a good manager and got along fine.

So glad to have Mrs. Frank Wolfe and Frank, Jr., and his favorite flower" back at Sunday school Sunday. Also glad to have Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Kurtz.

Try War Gases In Cancer Cases

Army Joins With Research
Groups to Study Use of Blister Chemicals.

EDGEWOOD ARSENAL, MD.—The army chemical corps' medical division will investigate the possibility that deadly blister gases prepared for wartime use may aid victims of cancer, it was announced here.

The gases will be part of a large variety of chemicals to be used in a search for new compounds for cancer treatment. The work will be conducted in close collaboration with leading cancer research groups.

After the fall of France in 1940, information about new blister gases known to the French and Germans reached this country. These gases were classified as "nitrogen mustards" because they blistered the skin like mustard gas but contained nitrogen instead of sulfur.

His Whole Body

Study by the chemical corps and agencies of the office of scientific research and development disclosed that the gases were poisonous to nearly all parts of the body but particularly destructive to bone marrow and lymph glands.

Most white and red blood cells are formed in the bone marrow. Other white blood cells and lymphocytes originate in the lymph glands.

Use of the nitrogen mustards was suggested to treat diseases in which there is a great overgrowth of white blood cells—the leukemias, or a great overgrowth of lymph glands—Hodgkin's disease and lymphosarcoma, fatal forms of cancer.

Because the nitrogen mustards are hottest to Girl Scout Troop No. 157 when they gathered at her home for a party Thursday night.

They Prolong Life.

Results of the use of the gases in the first 67 cases treated, recently published in the Journal of the American Medical Association, showed that while the nitrogen mustards do not cure any form of cancer, they do prolong life in many instances and bring about remarkable remissions in a few cases.

The chemicals were most effective in treating Hodgkin's disease, where results equaled those obtained with the best x-ray treatment.

They gave temporary relief to some cases which no longer responded to x-ray.

Reports are awaited on other cases similarly treated at Memorial hospital in New York, Walter Reed General hospital in Washington and Chicago hospitals.

Only three types of nitrogen mustards have been used in cancer treatment. More than 60 others have been made in the chemical laboratory and it is among them that the medical division will search for better cancer drugs.

Washington First in Crazy

People, Statistics Prove
WASHINGTON—There are more crazy people in Washington, D. C., than there are in any place else in the United States, a table printed in the Illinois Public Welfare Bulletin showed. The survey covered only persons confined in public hospitals for the mentally ill.

The District of Columbia has $12.30 persons for each 100,000 of population confined in public mental hospitals, the table disclosed. New York state had 60.6 for each 100,000 to rank second high in percentage of insane to population. Illinois was far down the list of states with only 40.71 mental patients confined for each 100,000 population.

Several eastern seaboard states outranked Illinois in percentage of insanity, including Connecticut, Delaware, Massachusetts, and New Hampshire. Lowest in the nation was Wisconsin with 68.07 persons for each 100,000 residents. The table was based on United States census figures for 1943, the latest statistics available.

Golden Eagle Is 'Put On Trial' in Scotland

PERTH, SCOTLAND—A golden eagle is "on trial" for his life. The judicial body, composed of the Perthshire agricultural executive committee, charges the defendant carried off 40 lambs.

Committee members refused to announce their verdict, but an official said the case would be submitted to the Scottish board of agriculture.

Permission to kill a golden eagle must be obtained from the board under British law.

Yield of Cotton Is Placed
At Lowest Point Since 1921

WASHINGTON.—A 1946 cotton crop of only 8,724,000 bales—smallest since 1921 and second smallest since 1935—was forecast by the department of agriculture. The estimate is 47,000 bales, or 4.9 per cent below the September 1 forecast. Production last year was 9,015,000 and the 1935-36 average was 12,533,000 bales.

Unfavorable weather was largely responsible for the decline.

Destructive Fires That Increase in Winter

The big majority of fires in the records of the National Board of Fire Underwriters over a five-year period occur in residences or places where people live—home fires. They are always more numerous in the winter months.

Approximately three out of four fires, of known cause, start from four main groups of known causes that involve either carelessness, inattention, or plain accident. Experts believe that nine out of ten of these fires are preventable by good housekeeping and cautious habits, and especially, the holiday season.

The outstanding causes: 1. Careless use of Matches and Smoking, 24.4 per cent. 2. Defective electric wiring and appliances, or failure of main service, electricity, 19.2 per cent.

Causes arising from lack of care, inattention and carelessness in use of cooking and heating stoves, etc., 24.3 per cent.

Of foregoing includes the following: fires of chimneys and flues, 6.9%; stoves, furnaces, boilers and pipes, 5.3%; sparks on roofs, 5.2%; and hot ashes and coal-spill fires, 4.2%.

4. Carelessness with kerosene lamps, candles, open lights of all kinds; kerosene stoves, and misuse of gasoline and other inflammable liquids for cleaning and other dangerous purposes, 11.4 per cent.

All other causes, 25.14 per cent.

"Between Us"

We used to know a fellow that worked only while looking for a job for his wife.

Some of the people who fall in love at first sight, wish they had taken a second look.

All people who won't work aren't lazy—they just heard that exercise between meals isn't healthy.

FIVE-ACRE YIELDS HIGH

PINEAPPLE SQUARE

THE pineapple pattern lends itself to many lovely articles for the home. A but none more popular with crocheters than a dolly made of this attractive stitchery. In the key centerpiece shown, the pattern forms a large square with pointed edges. The same design can be worked into a large square tablecloth, with the same dainty point edge outlining the cloth. A direction leaflet for crocheting this PINEAPPLE CENTERPIECE may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper, specifying Leaflet No. 776.

FARM HOME LIGHTING

Rising before daylight is no novelty in the farm home.

That's why it's especially nice to have a night light in the wall outlet which contains the best room light switch, for it gives enough illumination for the early riser to dress by, without awakening another sleeper in the room.

When farm homes have been remodeled to include a bathroom, it is sometimes located by necessity a distance away from the sleeping rooms. If this is the case, tiny night lights left burning in the hallways or stairways leading to it may prevent falls or barked shins.

The Jeffersontown Methodist Church will present "While Shepherds Watched Their Flocks by Night," a Christmas pageant, Sunday evening, December 22, at 8 o'clock.

The program will be a candle-light service with candles furnishing the only light in the church. The choir will sing the familiar carols throughout the program. A cordial invitation is extended the community.

Another Good Year For Poultry Raisers

Poultryraisers are told in the annual outlook report of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station that they may expect a good year in 1947. Demand for poultry meat and eggs is expected to continue strong. Prices received by farmers for eggs may be near the government support received by farmers during the 1946 flush season, the report states.

Egg production in Kentucky may be about the same in 1947 as it was in 1946, but for the country as a whole it may be 6 to 9 per cent lower. Reduction in exports may make domestic egg supplies as large as those in 1946. Other points brought out in the report are:

"In 1947, the consumption of poultry meats probably will remain above prewar levels, although it may not be as high as during the periods of acute meat shortage. Total chicken meat output in 1947 will be about the same as in 1946. Chicken nests from farm flocks probably will be less. But, ample feed supplies and favorable returns may result in a substantial increase in commercial broiler output. Commercial broiler production for a little less than one-fifth of the total poultry meat production.

"The demand for turkey is expected to remain strong during 1947 if a high level of consumer purchasing power continues. Prices lower than those of the past three years are likely, but with ample feed supplies available and with a reasonably satisfactory growing season, the enterprise should be profitable."

Look who's riding the Southern!

Sure, it's Santa Claus.

He's traveling all up and down the Southern Railway System these days. He may not be a jolly old fellow dressed in crimson red, but we know he's there.

We see him in the smiles and friendly faces of folks going home for the Holidays...in the mail cars bulging with greeting cards...and in the freight cars piled high with holly, mistletoe and Christmas trees.

We see him, too, in the boxcars loaded with toys and gifts...in the refrigerator cars carrying turkeys and other good things to eat...and in the long trainloads of coal to keep homes warm and cozy.

Yes, jolly old Santa Claus is riding the railroad. And the 50,000 men and women of the Southern Railway System are taking mighty good care of him. Because that's our way of saying "Merry Christmas" to all the boys and girls...and their mothers and dads...who live in the South we serve.
